

A day in the Venetian countryside.

Price: Login to see price!

Product Categories: Wine & Gastronomy, Venice & The Veneto

Product Page:

<https://www.destetravel.com/product/a-day-in-the-venetian-countryside/>

Product Summary

After the transfer from your hotel in Venice, you will meet your private driver in Piazzale Roma and start your tour to discover the authentic tastes of the Venetian countryside.

Product Description

After the transfer from your hotel in Venice, you will meet your private driver in Piazzale Roma and start your tour to discover the authentic tastes of the Venetian countryside.

Enjoy your breakfast in a real Venetian Villa of the 18th century that offers an unforgettable experience for guests wishing to stay in this magical place and experience the warm hospitality and relaxation of life in the villa. Today is the Home-Museum of the master sculptor Toni Benetton, who used it as a place for artistic and cultural encounters. After breakfast have a walk around the property to visit the property and walking in the park among ancient trees and sculptures. Enjoy a Cooking Lessons at the Historic Venetian Villa where you can discover step-by-step how to make a satisfying, full Italian meal from appetizers to dessert, including the art of making pasta fresca. You'll learn to create such pastas as ravioli, tagliatelle, gnocchi in this funny, hands-on adventure. Recipes vary according to the season, utilizing only the freshest ingredients available and providing you with a deeply individual Italian experience. The best part is the conclusion: indulging in the success of your creations. At about noon, we have an "aperitivo" together, with the appetizers we have cooked together and a glass of good "Prosecco docg". At the end of the lesson, we enjoy together our creations "a tavola", tasting some other noble wines from Veneto. Free time in the afternoon to enjoy the park of the villa before going back to Venice.