Product Description

Begin your tour with a stroll around the Rialto district to learn about its history, its artisans, its shops, ready to discover the traditional Venetian food and drinks.

Bacaro is the ancient Venetian word used to define a typical ancient wine bar, where people used to go to grab small plates (“cicchetti”) and drink local wines or spritz

Nowadays, the bacari are the perfect place where to have an aperitif before dinner or lunche enjoying delicious small portions of food like meatballs, boiled eggs with anchovies, fried fish, boiled octopus, sweet and sour sardines, creamy salt cod and more...living a truly local and tasty experience!
